Dear Molly,

Received a copy of the Recorder and was glad to read the letters a lot of my friends had written.

I'm enjoying good health and haven't much to complain about. The truth is the censor wouldn't let me anyway.

I don't see why Harry Lubin got sore about Mendel Fine's remark. If I'm mistaken Mendel is in the infantry the same as I am and we don't need the U.S.O. Commando's training to bring us back alive. We've suffered and got what it takes or else we'd be pill rollers or M.P.'s.

Best Regards to all my friends.

Herman
