Dear Mr. Sollod,

Here I am on the sand-strewn Fort Miles and suddenly the mail brings me your card inviting me to enjoy the services at the Chapel at Du Pont.

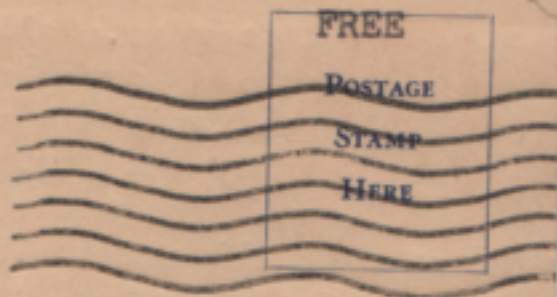

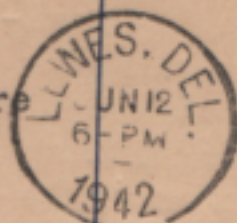

I really regret that conditions prevent me from being there with all of you but it can't be helped.

Since I just cleaned up a mess of work here at the office, I thought I'd take a breather and drop you a note. Of course things are pretty much in the temporary stage yet so time is at a premium. However, the place is not so bad, from what I have been able to see of it.

There really isn't much more to tell so after making a note of my change of address on your roster there, please give my best regards to Molly and to all the gang.
