Achieving The Inevitable Victory

On the evening of August 14th, Wilmington let loose and celebrated the advent of peace by closing down its main thoroughfare in order that 50,000 merrymakers could exercise their lungs to capacity strength while walking up and down Market Street. The religious among us gave thanks for the peace that had come to suffering humanity by attending services at synagogues and churches. The test of our gratitude has yet to come with the shaping of the world of our future.

Wilmington Jewry, as is generally true throughout the country has contributed to the fighting forces in manpower far in excess of its proportion to the civilian population. No sacrifice was too great for us. We accepted the call to duty resolutely and unflinchingly. Let us help shape the peace and guard it as well.

For the past twelve years we lived abnormal lives. Our children can only visualize a world at war. The transition to peace catches us somewhat off guard and the adjustment for all of us, old and young, will be another test of our moral stamina.

Our fighting men will be coming home shortly. They too will need adjustment to the community, perhaps less than the community will need adjustment to them. Here is where the challenge really lies. Will a program be established to suit the needs of returning veterans and if so, what is that program to be? Will we think in the past tense or experiment with the future?

The Y. M. and Y. W. H. A. in Wilmington will continue to maintain high standards, service the community youngsters, the adolescent, the young adults and the adult of both sexes—as it has in the past. For the returning servicemen and women a program suited to their needs will be developed by them with us and will be geared to the best interest of Wilmington Jewry.

Youth Celebrates Termination of War

When the cessation of hostilities was announced the evening of Tuesday, August 14, the YM and YWHA authorities decided to go along with the thought that the building be closed the following day in order that its staff may have the day to celebrate. The staff readily acquiesced in the decision (a perfectly normal reaction). But not so the young men and women in the community.

On Wednesday while the director was on the job catching up with his work he was literally bombarded with telephone calls requesting that the "Y" be opened that evening. "Where else shall we go to celebrate if not at the "Y"? All the director could do was to answer a la John Alden, "Whatever you ask in that name I have not the power to deny it." And so the building was thrown open under supervision of Morris Levenberg who kindly consented to do his share of celebration at the "Y." Let it be known that upwards of seventy-five young folks attended. But this number has no significance in the light of the tangible happiness it brought to the participants. What really matters is that the "Y" is their second home, a place to turn when they seek recreation and social diversion.

Several servicemen came to the "Y" on that night famished and friendless. Morris Levenberg was on hand; need we say more? When he got there the cupboard was not bare, thanks to the Army and Navy Service Committee.

The war may be over but the spirit that animated us during those fateful years will be stronger than ever in happier years to come. Because our young folks are eager to spend their leisure hours in wholesome surroundings and amidst friends, the YM and YWHA will continue to serve them in the future with that same spirit which animated its leaders and staff in the past.

Home Camp Closes

After six weeks of healthful fun, the "Y" Home Camp closed on Friday, August 17th. The program of sports, cool swims, arts and crafts, singing, shows, movies, outings, was a never-ending delight to the over thirty children registered.

The excited interest manifested itself in the high record of attendance. Six campers—Larry Kaufman, Zelma Newman, June Rothstein, Jerry Schwartz, Wilma and Marcie Wapner — were present every day!

All the campers improved in their swimming. Beginners' certificates were issued to Billy Jaffee, Judith Schwab, June Rothstein, Marsha Kruger, Marcie Wapner, Martin Levin, and Gerald Cohen; while Herbert Klein, Zelma Newman, Jerry Rothstein and Wilma Wapner received their Intermediate Certificate, denoting considerable swimming skill in the pool.

The variety of program was disclosed in the last week of the Camp. On Monday, besides the usual athletics, singing and Arts and Crafts, a "Truth and Consequence" program brought howls of delight; Tuesday, the camp spent the afternoon at Brandywine Park; Wednesday, brought "V-J" Day and a holiday; Thursday featured a special "V-J" service for the children; Friday, closing day, brought a grand exhibit of work done, and a special entertainment prepared by the children for their parents. To climax the activities of this final week, a newspaper was issued, "The 'Y' Homecamper," with appreciations of the Camp from counsellors and campers.

The camp boasted of a very capable staff. Direction of camp was in the hands of Mrs. Ann Moran and Sarah F. Goldstein. Miriam Greenstein served as drawing teacher; Millard Martin and Freda Braunstein capably handled the swimming instruction; Becky Rappaport and Lenore Braiger served as general counsellors. Mr. Louis Schwartzman assisted as educational consultant.

Plans for the next year call for an enlarged "Y" Home Camp with many added activities. Considerable educational content and a varied program taking advantage of the many resources of the city will be appended to the usual stimulating camp schedule. This all adds up to, as the successful camp this year indicated, lots of fun in a healthful environment — a constructive approach to the recreational needs of the Jewish children of Wilmington during the sweltering days of summer.

Meet The Staff

Harry Bluestone—Executive Director (The new "boss"). In coordination of various departments; community interpublic relations; budget; finance; membership program promotion; supervision of staff, etc.

Louis Schwartzman—Educational Director (new to Wilmington). In charge: planning for supervision of activities for educational consultant to intermediates and adults; supervision of Home Camp; recruitment and training of leaders, etc.

Morris Levenberg—Director of Intermediate Activities (standby). In charge: planning for intermediates and supervision of their activities.

Alexander Levy (Sonny) and N. Russo (Johnny). In charge of Physical Education activities.

Mollye Sklut—(of "Dear Mollye" fame). Office Secretary.

Rebecca Rappaport—(Becky) manages the office while Mollye is on vacation.

Virginia Wilson—keeps the books (but returns them).

Charles Thayer — Superintendent (Charlie) and his assistants Guthra Hyatt and Vince.

Others on the staff now available.

Simon R. Krinsky—(Educational and Cultural). Sam Pratt, Martin, Lewis Frankel—Education, and Anita Cohen.

Open Invitation: Come and meet the happy family. Introduce yourself to the newcomers, you say, "Good to see you" to the old-timers.

Ten Commandments

following Ten Commandments drawn up by Dr. Luther Woodward of the Rehabilitation Division of the National Committee for Mental Hygiene, are intended for the information of families of returning veterans, and should be kept in mind in relationship with discharged service-

Welcome him warmly and don't call a family member.

Listen understandingly, but don't pry into battle experiences.

Face the reality of disability but don't magnify it. Focus on what is left . . . not what is missing.

Treat him as a normal, independent person.

Commend his efforts and don't ignore the slips. We prefer praise to nagging.

Expect him to be different. Give him time to get reacquainted.

Allow him time and freedom to become readjusted and re-established.

Create an atmosphere of tolerance; encourage him to take up his favorite hobbies, to look for congenial work and lead a normal social life, but avoid pushing and regulating him. Top-sergeant methods won't work at home.

(i) Get professional help needed in solving personal or family problems. Don't just muddle through.

(j) Let your own faith and spirit be your chief stock in trade.

GUEST LETTER

The following letter was received shortly after the Moonlight cruise early in August. Several hundred service men and women attended.

Gentlemen:

I wish to express my appreciation, delayed but nevertheless sincere, of your invitation to the boat-ride a week ago Thursday. It was a most pleasant evening and I'm sure my friends would agree with me.

I'm returning several tickets for refreshments that weren't used. You folks brought more than enough to eat.

Sincerely,
DAVID SCHENKER

DEAR MOLLYE

The former "Word From The Front" is now "Dear Mollye. It has its reasons. Miss Sklut has undertaken a one-man correspondence with virtually every Wilmington boy who has left for service. Even the stranger in our midst writes "Dear Mollye." . . . . .

My outfit has moved from Mergentheim to Schweitzingen which is located between Mannheim and Heidelberg and all the squads have received various assignments. My squad has been assigned the control and management of a paint factory which is located in Mannheim. It's the best deal we have ever had. As for Mannheim it was a very large city. I use the past tense because this town since took a beating. Only the main streets are open to traffic, the rest of them are still piled high with rubble that was once buildings. Compared to some of the other towns I've seen, Mannheim hasn't suffered at all. At least some of the walls are still standing. In other towns there isn't even part of a building standing. If you know anyone that is stationed in or around Mannheim, Heidelberg, Heilbronn, please let me know.

Haven't seen Sloan for a few weeks but from reports I receive he is doing fine. Also I haven't received a Recorder, hope I get one soon I sure do miss it. I received a letter from Marvin Barshay, it was almost a month getting here. Have you heard from Morty Maisel? I wrote to him a few months ago but haven't received an answer. I was glad to hear about all of the fellows who are getting back home. I hope it won't be long before we will all be back and have that big celebration at the "Y".

Davie Paikin, T|5

Dear Mollye:

On July 4th while you were busy writing to us, we were also busy fixing up our "big bird" so it could fly, nice way to spend a holiday. I bet the race track was busy. I remember when I used to work there, and saw all the "suckers" coming and going—was it worth while, safe and sane as you said? I have been to Miami a few more times since I wrote you, still having a wonderful time. Don't get me wrong, I still thing the Wilmington "Y" rates No. 1. I'm still taking it easy working part of the time but enjoying everything I do. As for being discharged I'm more or less classed as essential and the story is that we won't move anywhere, just wait until things are ready. Right now being a civilian would be hard to get used to.

I expect to be home for a 15-day furlough, so I'll drop around and show you my Florida tan. This Sunday we have a deep sea fishing trip planned, see what else I can catch besides a cold. Glad to hear that some of the boys are coming home, hope it's for good soon.

Sgt. Sidney Feldman

Dear Mollye:

In my most recent letters that I have been receiving I notice a few of the boys are getting back home including my brother Seymour. It does my heart good to see a few of them slowly returning. There is a rumor (strictly a rumor) in our squadron that we'll be returning to the U. S. to re-group; you no doubt what the meaning of that is. That means me as I'll be ending my 19th month in another two weeks.

I just returned from a ten-day rest period in the mountains, golfing, tennis, horseback riding, swimming, dancing, etc., and the best of all was the beautiful cool weather. Slept on a good "springy" hospital bed and the warmth of our G. I. blankets which we needed. The worse part was when I returned to this unbearable weather, the good old "monsoon," and now I'm broken out with a miserable heat rash.

My brother Seymour mentioned in his most recent letter that you were nice enough to go to the trouble of calling him at the hospital. You deserve a medal for that—the Army saying is: "Above and beyond the call of duty."

Give my regards to the boss and the good old staff and if that darn rumor is on the level you can expect me in the latter part of September. By the way I've received my third stripe.

Sgt. Elliott Waxman

Dear Mollye:

I hate to see any of the fellows that have fought over here go back home for redeployment and then the Pacific, but the sooner we get this over with the sooner we'll all be home for good. We expect to go back to the States the early part of next year or whenever they

GIRLS SERVICE COUNCIL BUSY DURING SUMMER

The girls of the Service Council kept rather busy during the summer. The trips to Dover Air Field every other Friday to attend Services and dance with a large number of our boys. If you are a member of the "Y" and over the age of 16 years of age, we would like you to come along with us. Please call the office and leave your name with Miss Sklut.

Mildred Malofsky, who was in charge of Summer Activities had a very nice Dog Roast in July which was held in the "monkey house" in the wine Park. A large attendance of Servicemen from Dover A. Fort Dupont, New Castle A. and the girls of the Service kept the Accordion player, furnished our music for the evening, on his toes the entire evening. Miss Malofsky's committee consists of Miss Esther Caney and Marion Malofsky.

During August the Committee had a Corn Roast which was our favorite spot in the wine Park. Again we were joined with the Man and his Accordion. A wonderful time was had by all. Refreshments were served by Mrs. J. Bleiberg, Mrs. Geller, Mrs. J. Protigal and Mrs. L. Blatman. Orchids to the ladies.

Girls Service Council will have Fall activities soon after the Holidays.

Statistics by the Bureau of War Reliefs indicate that upwards of 1,000,000 men of Jewish faith are serving in the armed forces of the United States; or, in military units more than 33 divisions.

At least one-third of the Jewish population of the nation are serving in the armed forces.

We wish it were possible to sit down and write a personal note of thanks to each and every one who inserted daily greetings in this issue of the RECORDER. We are indeed grateful to all for their cooperation.

May the NEW YEAR bring to all of us the happiness of a genuine peace brought to us so speedily by the members of our armed forces. May this year help bring a richer program of service to the community, so that we may enjoy the blessings of the YM-YWHA of Wilmington.

YOUTH COUNCIL PLANS DANCE

The Jewish Youth Council ends its summer season and inaugurates its fall year with a "Welcome Home Dance."

The dance which will be held in the "Y" Auditorium on Wednesday, September 5, is the last date planned by the Social Committee under the chairmanship of Allan Levine. This committee just completed a successful summer with planned splash parties, weenie roasts, campfires and a corn roast. The highlight of the summer was the Council Moonlight held on Wednesday, July 11.

Another feature of the summer was the Boys' Beauty contest. This was taken by Joseph Horowitz, who was named Miss Youth Council for 1945. Other participants included Jay Herrmann, Milton Isaacs, Allen Levine, and Robert Greenfield.

Plans for the coming season include Youth Lecture series, Youth Music Appreciation programs and dramatics. A swimming contest between Chester Community Center and the Youth Council is being arranged and will be held in the early months of the fall season.

The Youth Council needs the support of every one if these programs are to be successful, so let's all back the Youth Council for our own benefit.

More than 8200 Jewish men in uniform have received citations for valor and merit, many of them posthumously. Among the 8200 are 78 Jewish men who each have to their credit ten or more awards for valor, holding an aggregate of 881 such decorations.

Thirty-four percent of the Jewish male refugee population of the United States between the ages of 18-45 are bearing arms for their adopted country.

Dear Mollye:

I received a letter from Aaron Sklut about a week ago and also one from Sol Balick. Both are doing o. k. Aaron told me about being moved around so much, maybe one of his moves will be toward the States. A few weeks ago I went to Jewish services on the island and the Chaplain was Sam Silver. I guess by now he's written you about our meeting. We're on different Islands and he comes over here every other Tuesday. He'll be here this coming week and I'll get to see him again. Some day I'm going over and spend the day with him.

I heard that Mr. Sollod was leaving the "Y" and I was very sorry to hear about it. I know he will be missed by all who attend the "Y". Who will be taking his place? We have our new camp in pretty good shape and now almost all the fellows are working on the job assigned to us. The place is fixed up pretty nice but it can't compare with our last camp as we had no mud there at all but here we have mud all the time. It's still not the worse one we had. I'm on a detail supplying material for all the jobs and it's not a bad job. We're always kept busy but that helps the time go by faster.

Last week we celebrated our 2nd Anniversary over here. When we got in from work they had a big feed for us and a few cans of beer each and then a good movie. There were forty-four men whose names were drawn to go home but I never was that lucky. We are having a lot of rain now and I guess it'll rain like this for sometime. We're used to it and don't mind it at all. Give my regards to Sonny, Johnny and the rest of the gang.

The war being over, here in Europe in a destructive way, finds me and the others awaiting the means of a return trip to the States. Meanwhile various stories and rumors reach the ears of most of us. I was glad to hear that Nate Goldstein got an opportunity to practice as a psychologist in a field more to his liking and ability. According to your letter of June, Mr. Sollod will leave the "Y" for new duties. Good luck to him! Here's hoping to see you soon.

Your letter must have come over by row-boat. Harvey Brown is stationed in Munich about 25 miles from where I am. He spent a couple of days with me and I am going to pick him up tomorrow and bring him over here for overnight.

I don't know if I had written you before but I have found five girls and seven boys, all Jewish, that I am caring for, that is, I see that they have decent quarters and food. These things pay up for all the bad experiences, to be able to help those who had gone through so much.

The best of luck and keep writing.

Dear Mollye:

Now I'm once more back in Germany, although not very far from the Austrian border, it is just about the same and there are many more lakes here than there were at the place I was in Austria. The water in these mountain lakes is cold but refreshing and a dip after work is swell. It isn't too bad and the mighty super race are like lambs and cater to our every whim. It seems strange now to be waited on.

There is nothing definite as to when or where I go from here, however, the Third and Seventh Armies are to be occupation but the 80th is just attached to the Third so we may be pulled out of here at any time. However, I feel sure that we shall return to the States before proceeding to the CBI. I can't say what my chances of going to the CBI are, I have 57 points which in the division is rather high, and if we do go, it's Japs beware here comes the 80th.

We have four battle stars on our ETO ribbon, and have aspects for two more, but I am not so sure we will get them. Here's hoping we do as ten more points won't hurt a bit.

Met Arthur Bilon and he is spreading a little—out, not up. I think he's gained at least thirty pounds since I last saw him at home and it becomes him. I'll certainly say "hello" to David Platt, Art and Beryle Tupp when I see them again. I'm glad Eddie Euster and Bea Sortman got together, it'll be swell seeing two wonderful kids like they are happily married. I'll enjoy meeting the girl whom Georgie Samuels married. Y'know I helped raise that "shave-tail," he's a good kid. You did a good job in answering all my questions in my last letter; thanks an awful lot. It's "sack-time" now, and we're roused at 6 in the morning so I'll say good-night for just a little while and thanks again for writing so promptly.

Dear Mollye:

In the third hour of a three-day pass to Rheims a week ago, I was greeted by a surprised "Hello Plafker" from Hal Schoenberg. I had until then been very unfortunate with regard to meeting any of the old gang, so I was surprised to the darned near speechless stage. I hitch-hiked up to Compiegne to see some French people I knew and then went back to Rheims and met Hal again in the Red Cross Club there. We spent the first part of the evening listening to a string sextette that played six different times at one time, none of them having the same rhythm, or so it seemed. The next couple of hours were spent drinking an unworldly mixture of champagne and cognac. It nothing more than primed me for my next unusual incident which might have given me an epileptic fit if I hadn't been in the proper inebriated condition. Hal dropped me off at a pass center about 2 A. M. to arrange for staying there, a small detail I have overlooked. Hal drove off and while at the desk getting things in order I heard a "Hello Nate" and turned to see Dave Nathans. He'd been up to see Sammy Geller and Mort Schulman and had somehow gotten into Rheims. We stayed up talking about everything going back to the inevitable—women. Inasmuch as we both had to get back to camp, that settled that, but I hope to get

Last week we celebrated our 2nd Anniversary over here. When we got in from work they had a big feed for us and a few cans of beer each and then a good movie. There were forty-four men whose names were drawn to go home but I never was that lucky. We are having a lot of rain now and I guess it'll rain like this for sometime. We're used to it and don't mind it at all. Give my regards to Sonny, Johnny and the rest of the gang.

Dear Mollye:

The war being over, here in Europe in a destructive way, finds me and the others awaiting the means of a return trip to the States. Meanwhile various stories and rumors reach the ears of most of us. Some say the occupation will be one purpose but the movement of personnel has led me to believe a new set-up will take place with higher point men being pooled together so as to be in a category to select from as soon as transportation is available. However, that gives me little hope of going home as my points are not very high but not too low.

I was glad to hear that Nate Goldstein got an opportunity to practice as a psychologist in a field more to his liking and ability. According to your letter of June, Mr. Sollod will leave the "Y" for new duties. Good luck to him! Here's hoping to see you soon.

Dear Mollye:

Your letter must have come over by row-boat. Harvey Brown is stationed in Munich about 25 miles from where I am. He spent a couple of days with me and I am going to pick him up tomorrow and bring him over here for overnight.

I don't know if I had written you before but I have found five girls and seven boys, all Jewish, that I am caring for, that is, I see that they have decent quarters and food. These things pay up for all the bad experiences, to be able to help those who had gone through so much.

The best of luck and keep writing.

Dear Mollye:

Now I'm once more back in Germany, although not very far from the Austrian border, it is just about the same and there are many more lakes here than there were at the place I was in Austria. The water in these mountain lakes is cold but refreshing and a dip after work is swell. It isn't too bad and the mighty super race are like lambs and cater to our every whim. It seems strange now to be waited on.

There is nothing definite as to when or where I go from here, however, the Third and Seventh Armies are to be occupation but the 80th is just attached to the Third so we may be pulled out of here at any time. However, I feel sure that we shall return to the States before proceeding to the CBI. I can't say what my chances of going to the CBI are, I have 57 points which in the division is rather high, and if we do go, it's Japs beware here comes the 80th. We have four battle stars on our ETO ribbon, and have aspects for two more, but I am not so sure we will get them. Here's hoping we do as ten more points won't hurt a bit.

Dear Mollye:

Met Arthur Biloon and spreading a little—out, n think he's gained at least 10 pounds since I last saw him. He says he'll be home and it becomes him. I'll certainly say "hello" to Dave Art and Beryle Tupp when they get them again. I'm glad Edter and Bea Sortman got home. It'll be swell seeing two w kids like they are happy. I'll enjoy meeting you whom Georgie Samuels told me Y'know I helped raise that kid, "tail," he's a good kid. You did a good job in answering all the questions in my last letter; thank you a awful lot. It's "sack-time" and we're roused at 6 in the morning so I'll say good-night to you a little while and thanks a lot for writing so promptly.

Dear Mollye:

In the third hour of a t pass to Rheims a week ago I was greeted by a surprised "Hello" from Hal Schoenber until then been very un with regard to meeting an old gang, so I was surprised and darned near speechless s hitch-hiked up to Compieg some French people I k then went back to Rheims Hal again in the Red Cr there. We spent the first the evening listening to a sextette that played six times at one time, none having the same rhythm, seemed. The next couple were spent drinking an u mixture of champagne and It nothing more than pr for my next unusual incide might have given me an fit if I hadn't been in th inebriated condition. Dear Mollye:

I have done quite a bit of traveling the last few days for a little home town boy. The more I travel the more I wish I was back in Wilmington. Perhaps I'm emotionally inclined to be attached to Wilmington, but all in all, I assume that our city is a wonderful place to call home.

Last week I made a trip half way across the country to Kansas City; now I'm writing from Detroit. I've been more than earning my money lately and I sure can use that furlough that is waiting for me when I return. It'll be my first leave in over a year.
 My furlough was really supposed to begin this past Sunday but I was sitting here in Detroit instead.

It seems strange to close without being able to add, "Give my best wishes to Mr. Sollod." When you write please tell me how he is making out and all the latest news of his doings. I am as interesting in hearing about Mr. Sollod as I am about hearing what the rest of my friends are doing.

Dear Mollye:

I hope this insignificant piece of printed matter finds you and everyone at the "Y" in perfect health.
 As for myself I'm existing. . . . I have been in Magellan's Pacific for seven months and believe me they were the fastest seven months I have ever seen. Of course the last time 7 months flew for me was when I was born and at the end of those months I began to realize I was putting in a little time on this spheric piece of terra firma.
 . . . now here I am in the same category only under slightly different circumstances. I am still in the communication line in the Navy and expect to be until I get that good old Honorable Discharge paper. Speaking of discharges I figure it will take Japan quite some time before she comes to her bedraggled knees . . . so we can just forget about getting out. It's good to hear that the Army is discharging its quota of men. Those are the men in my estimation who deserve to get out first, the boys in the Infantry, the boys in the front lines, ordinance, etc.

If I come back to Wilmington by route of the Suez Canal I can say

I circled the globe although I won't be the first one but it will be more or less of an achievement or an accomplishment . . . only a miracle will console my ego for this goal and frankly I do not believe in miracles. So far in this war I have been pretty unfortunate when it came to meeting fellows from Wilmington. I have been on the go so much I've never had the opportunity to meet anyone maybe my luck will change. How is everyone at the "Y", I really miss those ping pong games we used to have. We really had the games.

Dear Mollye:

It seems as though a few of the boys are getting back to the states for awhile anyway. Please give my address to all the boys who are coming this way. If they should be in the vicinity of San Francisco, Oakland, or San Mateo or the neighborhood tell them to look me up. It would be a pleasure to see some of them again and I promise a nice big steak for any of them that should show up here.

I had a letter from Lenny Abrams, he is still in the Philippines, says he is doing all right.
 It would be swell to spend some afternoons at Price's Run pool; it sure would be a sight for sore eyes.
 Say hello to everyone and hope to see you soon.

Dear Mollye:

I was especially pleased to learn that both Georgie Samuels and Byron Samonisky are well on the way to becoming their old selves.
 Incidentally, I met George Samuels wife while I was in RTU at Columbia. Where are they planning on living?—or haven't they made any definite plans as yet?

I have several missions since I met Rabbi Fine and am happy to say that all were successful. All planes returned safely. Do you plan on keeping the "Snack Lounge" open permanently or just for the duration plus six? If I should happen to come home before the end of this fracas, I am going to take you up on that corned-beef sandwich offer.

At the present time I have an additional task along with my flying duties: I am working in the Operations Office. What I like most about this work is that it gives me something to do between missions and also because I have gotten to know almost every man in the squadron by sight as well as name.

 My regards to Mr. Sollod, Sonny and the rest of the gang.

Sgt. Bernard Fischer

Dear Mollye:

Now I know why all the servicemen love to write you. It was really swell reading your letter. This week they seem to hold a grudge against us because they have us working hard from 5 A. M. to 5 P. M., but as I said before I don't mind it at all. As for Buddy Handelman that so-and-so Coastguard, he owes me a letter so I don't know what kind of a song he's singing. As long as I've known Bud, he can take it as well or better than any man.

My basketball experience got me playing first string for the Company and I am having a lot of fun dropping the ball in from the center of the court. It was my good fortune to meet a friend of mine a few days ago, Dick Ewing and he played ball with Lou Keil, Buddy and myself at the U. of D. We have swell times together during our free time.

Please extend my congratulations to Johnny, but why a girl? I hope the "Y" Boys are pulling together and showing all the Frats what an organization is like, because they're tops. Regards to all.

Dear Mollye:

After spending about two weeks in France, I am now on my way to Panama. Today we passed Puerto Rico and Mona Pass. I thought I might be coming home this summer but those beautiful dreams have vanished from my mind as I just received more "shots" for the Pacific and my arms are still a bit sore.

Just before I left France I received a letter from my parents stating that Mr. Sollod had left the "Y." Boy! I hardly believe it.
 I guess it must have been a pretty shock to everybody as it was to me. I certainly hate to see him go as he did so much for the "Y" and I doubt if there is anyone who could have done more. One thing I am glad, I had the honor and privilege of working for him and I couldn't ask for a better "Boss".
 I wish you would send him my best regards and all the luck in the world in his next position. My parents also told me I had a letter from Aaron Sloan and they are off to go up to see Mort Schulman.

To add to my surprises when I got back to camp I received George Samuel's wedding announcement. This was too much so I just had to take a three-day pass to Paris to recuperate. Naturally, I recuperated in a way badly favorable to medical science. One evening, a bartender, oddly enough named Georges, noticing my moroseness at the departing of my former roommate from bachelorhood, insisted that I be his guest for one small toast. We wished them lots of happiness. If you ever hear of anyone around my present location, Chateau Thierry, please let me know.

in the capital of Germany. The place is really destroyed and the civilian population is really suffering, but it is nothing in comparison to what this winter will have. I have toured the ruins and seen all the once famous buildings and the Russians did a marvellous job on the eastern part of the city.

See the best shows and movies yesterday I saw Mickey Rooney and what a show!!—really terrific.

The Russians didn't meet expectations but are very friendly. They have everything; I even sold my things. They are loaded with "gelt" and are paying big prices; there is a real watch in our outfit. Reand to hear that all of the boys are home and I sure hope that all of them have to make that trip to the Pacific. From the news it seems that the Japs won't be too long now.

Suppose by now you have seen Mrs. Tannen. She can give first-hand information about the war over in Italy and I think that she could do pretty good as a correspondent from this part of the world.

I guess the "Y" seems different with the "Boss" away from his post. Well, things will adjust themselves and let's hope that everything turns out for the best. The new "boss" will be a stranger for awhile and then everyone will be sociable and I hope that the "Y" gets bigger and better as time goes by.

Last night I had a surprise, we had bananas for supper but they were green, along with ice cream with chocolate syrup. You know that war is over when they start to feed like that. There is nothing new over here only that we are just eating and sleeping and wasting the Government's money.

Dear Molloye:

My biggest thrill in the ETO happened last Friday night. I met and spoke with someone from home. It was Col. Barsky. He arrived as a patient here in our hospital and has since left on a hospital ship for the States. Only a person who has been overseas can know what it means to meet and talk with someone from home. Before he left the Colonel promised to phone Mom and Jean when he arrived back in Wilmington.

I've been very busy lately with boats going out and trains coming in. Regards to all around the "Y".

Sgt. Ben Seidel

Dear Molloye:

I'm finally settled and am leading a quiet life, I'm a gunner on a gun position, and I see a lot of things I've often studied about. At present I'm seeing future history being made.

It's a cinch I'm not up to date on Wilmington. Most of my crowd aren't from home and I don't hear much about "Ye Ole Home Town." Really beginning to miss it too.

I would appreciate it greatly if you were to send me the Recorder; I'm sure this would tell me a lot of what I want to know. Just listening to the 9 o'clock news and it sounds promising. I'm sure that thousands like myself, pray that this mess will be over in a hurry so we may all return home again. That will be one happy day. My best regards to all.

Cpl. Mannie Skversky

Dear Molloye:

So you want to know what division I'm in and you will know if I stay here or get home? Well, it's not so easy as all that because I'm not in any division. We're just a lonely artillery outfit, and attached to a group. We got thrown from one division to another in combat and it's still the same. In combat we were with the 2nd Armored most of the time, but also supported the 30th Division, 29th, 83rd, 95th and many more. Anyhow I'm leaving the good old "258th" and go to a high point outfit. But it doesn't mean that I'll be home soon, and I don't expect to be home until the first of the year. It's a step in the right direction and I'll sweat it out.

Heard that Leon Wapner got home and is now a married man. Also Ralph Belfer is home and many more. My brother, Max, is at a staging area and should be home soon. Thank God—it's about time he got back. I'll let you know what the score is when I get to my new outfit. Meanwhile good luck and regards to all at the "Y".

Dear Molloye:

It's good to hear that some more of the fellows are getting home. The way the news is coming in now, they may hit a good deal out of it. I finally got my pass to Paris and really had a wonderful time, that is as good as it could be in three days. I was with Irv Polish a good bit of the time; the boy is right at home in "Gay Paree." We both bumped into Saul Galperin right in front of Irv's building, he was just coming in for a pass from Belgium; he looks very good. Also stopped over and saw Bobby Lewis who is also stationed in Paris so all in all it was what you would call a successful venture.

Tomorrow I start going to school on that Army education program, at least it will be something to do. Brushing up on a few subjects in case I decide to try the higher grade of learning when I don my "civies." Regards to all.

Dear Molloye:

Just got back from a swell afternoon at the pool. It's a swell place about the size of Price's but twice as beautiful.

Received a swell letter from Mr. Sollod and also yours. The new director has a "big pair of shoes to fill," but with the swell staff he has backing him up he can't miss. I have a picture postcard sent me of the "Y". Every time I look at it I'm reminded of the swell times I had there and of the times to come. It certainly looks good. I never appreciated what a beautiful place it is. I hope that Recorder gets here soon. The last one I received was back in May, in fact it was on V-E Day.

We're moving into Stuttgart as soon as our quarters are ready, a swell break for us as the Red Cross is opening a Club there with all the trimmings. It will mean more entertainment and comfort for us.

One of the fellows had a birthday a few days ago so we had a little party for him. We persuaded the cooks to give us the ingredients and a German woman baked a cake for us. It wasn't much but we had a good time and he was pretty happy. You see he spent his last birthday on the "beach" in France and before V-E Day we were talking and he said that if the war was over by July he'd like to have a party this year. We're glad we could make his wish come true. It's good to hear that the boys are getting home, even if only for a little while. Keep your swell letters coming.

Dear Molloye:

I saw Jerry Balick on Okinawa and he is fine and in the best of health. I tried to locate Jack Schenkman but found out that he was evacuated on Okinawa. I am sorry to hear Mr. Sollod left the "Y". Who now is the big "boss"?

I guess you know that I received the Bronze Star Medal for action against the enemy on Okinawa. We hear a lot of peace talk and I do hope that the Nips decide it is time to stop this war.

Points seems to be a thing of the past for officers. I don't think we will get out until the war is over. Glad to hear that some of the boys are getting discharged; they really have seen enough of this war. I understand that Sonny found himself a nice girl friend; he is a swell fellow. Good luck to Sonny and tell Johnny I said hello.

Lt. Irv. Sigmond

YOU NEED THE "Y" THE "Y" NEEDS YOU

going to forward it to me. I can't wait until I get it as it has been a long time since I last heard from him.

By the way, are "Johnny" and Sonny still sitting around and watching the volleyball games? You better tell those two P. T. men to start taking a workout as the boys will be coming home soon.

"Yoisel" Swartz, S/c.

Dear Mollye:

I am in the capital of Germany. The place is really destroyed and the civilian population is really starving, but it is nothing in comparison to what this winter will be. I have toured the ruins and have seen all the once famous places and the Russians did a marvelous job on the eastern part of the city.

I see the best shows and movies and yesterday I saw Mickey Rooney and what a show!!—really terrific.

The Russians didn't meet expectations but are very friendly. They buy everything; I even sold my watch. They are loaded with "gelt" and are paying big prices; there isn't a watch in our outfit. Regards.

Dear Mollye:

I'm an instructor now at the "Third Army Floating Bridge School" and we work all day. It's really rough. I met Dave Nathans in Reims a couple of weeks ago and he looks swell. Also, one of the Schoenberg boys, but I can't remember which.

We're in Category two which still leaves us wondering and I have the amazing total of 64 points. That'll be good enough to land me in the CBI. I won't mind if it's by way of the States. I sure would like to see some of the gang and my family.

Regards to all and I made my "First" as of June 16th.

Lt. Seymour Matusoff

Dear Mollye:

Glad to hear that all of the boys are home and I sure hope that none of them have to make that trip to the Pacific. From the news today it seems that the Japs won't last too long now.

I suppose by now you have seen the new Mrs. Tannen. She can give you first-hand information about the war over in Italy and I think that she could do pretty good as a correspondent from this part of the world.

I guess the "Y" seems different with the "Boss" away from his post. Well, things will adjust themselves and let's hope that everything turns out for the best. The new "boss" will be a stranger for awhile and then everyone will be sociable and I hope that the "Y" gets bigger and better as time goes by.

Last night I had a surprise, we had bananas for supper but they were green, along with ice cream with chocolate syrup. You know that war is over when they start to feed like that. There is nothing new over here only that we are just eating and sleeping and wasting the Government's money.

Sgt. Leon Flanzer

Dear Mollye:

My biggest thrill in the ETO happened last Friday night. I met and spoke with someone from home. It was Col. Barsky. He arrived as a patient here in our hospital and has since left on a hospital ship for the States. Only a person who has been overseas can know what it means to meet and talk with someone from home. Before he left the Colonel promised to phone Mom and Jean when he arrived back in Wilmington.

I've been very busy lately with boats going out and trains coming in. Regards to all around the "Y".

Sgt. Ben Seidel

Dear Mollye:

I'm finally settled and am leading a quiet life, I'm a gunner on a gun position, and I see a lot of things I've often studied about. At present I'm seeing future history being made.

It's a cinch I'm not up to date on Wilmington. Most of my crowd aren't from home and I don't hear much about "Ye Ole Home Town." Really beginning to miss it too.

I would appreciate it greatly if you were to send me the Recorder; I'm sure this would tell me a lot of what I want to know. Just listening to the 9 o'clock news and it sounds promising. I'm sure that thousands like myself, pray that this mess will be over in a hurry so we may all return home again. That will be one happy day. My best regards to all.

Cpl. Mannie Skversky

Dear Mollye:

So you want to know what division I'm in and you will know if I stay here or get home? Well, it's not so easy as all that because I'm not in any division. We're just a lonely artillery outfit, and attached to a group. We got thrown from one division to another in combat and it's still the same. In combat we were with the 2nd Armored most of the time, but also supported the 30th Division, 29th, 83rd, 95th and many more. Anyhow I'm leaving the good old "258th" and go to a high point outfit. But it doesn't mean that I'll be home soon, and I don't expect to be home until the first of the year. It's a step in the right direction and I'll sweat it out.

Heard that Leon Wapner got home and is now a married man. Also Ralph Belfer is home and many more. My brother, Max, is at a staging area and should be home soon. Thank God—it's about time he got back. I'll let you know what the score is when I get to my new outfit. Meanwhile good luck and regards to all at the "Y".

Sgt. Louis Simon

Dear Mollye:

It's good to hear that some more of the fellows are getting home. The way the news is coming in now, they may hit a good deal out of it. I finally got my pass to Paris and really had a wonderful time, that is as good as it could be in three days. I was with Irv Polish a good bit of the time; the boy is right at home in "Gay Paree." We both bumped into Saul Galperin right in front of Irv's building, he was just coming in for a pass from Belgium; he looks very good. Also stopped over and saw Bobby Lewis who is also stationed in Paris so all in all it was what you would call a successful venture.

Tomorrow I start going to school on that Army education program, at least it will be something to do. Brushing up on a few subjects in case I decide to try the higher grade of learning when I don my "civies." Regards to all.

Pfc. Sol Balick

Dear Mollye:

Just got back from a swell afternoon at the pool. It's a swell place about the size of Price's but twice as beautiful.

Received a swell letter from Sollod and also yours. The rector has a "big pair of swell fill," but with the swell has backing him up he can't I have a picture postcard of the "Y". Every time I see it I'm reminded of the swell I had there and of the time it came. It certainly looks like I never appreciated what a swell place it is. I hope that you gets here soon. The last I received was back in May, it was on V-E Day.

It wasn't much but we had a good time and were pretty happy. You see he's had his last birthday on the "beast" in France and before V-E he and I were talking and he said that the war was over by July 1945. I had to have a party this year. I'm glad we could make his wish true. It's good to hear that the boys are getting home, even if for a little while. Keep your letters coming.

A Happy and Prosperous New Year

On the threshold of a New Year, we humbly pause to reflect, upon the past and the future. The past has been filled with tribulations, sorrows and happiness, successes and defeats. The future abounds in uncertainties, hopes and fears. Also on the threshold of a New Year, our thoughts turn to those who are away from home, in service of their country—some in training, some maintaining important defense positions, others at battle stations—all guarding the ramparts of our democracy at home and abroad.

A Happy and Prosperous New Year

To you who are not with us this Rosh Hoshanah, we send heartiest greetings and offer prayer for your safe and speedy return. We join with you in the hope that the ills of the world and the sorrows of our people will be alleviated and the nations be closer to the peace for which you have so nobly fought and for which we and our fathers always prayed. Also on this eve of a New Year, we at home pledge that we will keep our trust—to the end that this world will have a new birth of freedom for all humanity.
