Dear Molly,

Was glad to hear from you, but it really makes me sad to hear the "Y" is so quiet of late. I guess these youngsters who went lost were really the life-blood of the Center. But with the news coming in lately from abroad, you'll be able to turn the lights on again, and soon. I'm going into camera repair and installation for my advanced course, and the maintenance office asked me to stay on and work on the timers etc. I hope I make it, because I really like it here. Regards to all.

Best Wishes,
Jack Coonin
