Dear Malloy -

I well to hear from you so soon. You make me feel bad, because I could write more often, if I only could. I'm still on Bob Brodie's tail, but he hesitates on his answers, so I still don't know where I stand. Elliott is out of my territory, but I might see him in the big town. I'm glad to hear so many of the guys are coming home in one piece. Rotation is something whispered over the back of the hand to us. Every day seems a year, but when I think it's six months since I last saw the "Y", I realize the weeks slip by rather smoothly. All for now - Regards to all, Sincerely,

Jake
