Dear Bill:

I sincerely regret that you have arrived at a decision to disassociate yourself from the Voice. Although I have been in Wilmington for a relatively short time, I am very cognizant of the valuable contribution you have made to the Voice for these many years as both an editorial and feature writer.

If at some future date you wish to reconsider your decision, I'll be happy to discuss it with you.

Best wishes for a healthy and happy New Year.

Cordially,

Morris Lapidos
