Hello Mollye,

Sunday, Belgium

Been quite busy and have been hoping for a little time to drop you a note.

Was very glad to hear about Doris looking so well. She is a lovely girl. I think she is the only one from town who met my wife, or saw her, anyway. That was a year before I was married and she told me then that that would be my wife. She was right.

Wife and baby continue to be manging well and baby is growing beautifully.

My French improves from day to day and very often I am asked how long I studied it. Actually, I picked up every word I know when we got to the Continent.

There is much to see here of interest. I was never able to get to Paris though I passed through it. I visited Germany once on a trip.

Best regards to everyone. Sincerely Sammy
