As mayor of Middletown had a monument set up in the Square to soldiers who died in WW I. It also had a water Trough for horses.
There are 5 names inscribed and against tremendous opposition. The name of a black was included. The opposition was so strenuous that a compromise was reached and the name "colored" was added.

Dr. Levinson also organized the American League in Middletown and was Vice-Pres. of the Dela. Amer. League.
