

Dear Simon:

I just didn't have heart to tell you this when you called about the Shriners.

I am absolutely quitting the Jewish Voice. No question about I resent the whole set up. After all these years, I hate being just a name on the masthead of the Jewish Voice that means nothing.

I'm sending Karen Moss a copy of this letter, asking her-- no, directing her to remove my name from the masthead as assistant editors."

I am so ~~thoroughly~~ thoroughly disgusted with the last issue of the Voice, I can hardly contain myself.

I admit that raising money for the Federation is extremely important but I am not one who can or who wants to be ~~connected~~ connected with a mere publicity house organ-fund raising publication.

I can't see myself fighting and quarrelling about each issue. Sorry but that's how it is. I've had it. I admire your courage and patience but I've reached the peak of patience. I have no more. I also ~~xxx~~ resent the ~~xxx~~ indifference paid to you despite your wonderful contribution in the past.

I am also reaching the point where I ~~see~~ see the ~~xxx~~ hierarchy of the Federation as a ~~xxx~~ tremendous bureaucracy.

I hope we will continue to see one another frequently.

Bill Frank
