

COMPANY C

TWENTY-SECOND INFANTRY MOTORIZED

Camp Gordon - Augusta, Georgia

April 20,

Dear Malby,

[1942]

I didn't think you would know just which Herman when I am. I am the Weiner's cousin, the fellow who never came in the 'Y' without saying hello to you. Am sending a picture so you can determine just who I am, also am sending Regimental pin. Hope you like them.

Camp Gordon is the home of the Fourth Division, known as the Pollin' Fourth. We were at Fort Benning and moved here late in December.

I see the boys keep you quite busy answering their mail, I don't see how you do it, and answering them all promptly. I guess your slogan is 'Keep 'em Happy'.

If the army is doing all they can to keep me happy, but I'll never be happy until I sleep the jaws and come back home. A bit optimistic aren't I?

COMPANY C

TWENTY-SECOND INFANTRY MOTORIZED

Camp Gordon - Augusta, Georgia

I hope to be home
next month and I'll drop over to the Y to see you.

Regards to everyone.

Your friend,

Herman Cohen