Dear Mollie,

As I sit down to write this letter, the joyous echo of my shipping orders still rings in my ears. I can't say where I'm going, but I expect a long ride.

I'm glad to find out the Sigma Chi boys are doing so well on the home front, and I know we're well represented on all the other fronts. Several days after I met Morris Arief here, he told me you had just informed him of my presence here. Well, the thought was swell, but too late.

I have met quite a few of my acquaintances here, both in the service and natives, but I still don't have the kind of times I had with the guys and girls way back in Wilmington. Well, if an answer is in order, send it to this address, and it should be forwarded promptly.

Love & regards to all,
Jack Coonin
