

Albert Einstein Academy Collection Series:

Albert Einstein Academy Materials, 1991-2003, predominant 1991-1995 (Box 14):

This collection documents the day-to-day operations of the Albert Einstein Academy in Wilmington, Delaware from the years 1991 to 1995. The Albert Einstein Academy was a Jewish day school for children from grades K through 5, and was located in the same building as the Jewish Community Center on Garden of Eden Road. Collection includes correspondence to staff, parents, and donors, especially from principal Eleanor Weinglass and later principal Rabbi Ellen Bernhardt. Collection also contains academic calendars and flyers announcing upcoming field trips and events held by the school. In addition, collection includes the meeting minutes of the academy's board of trustees from the years 1993 to 1995 and financial records from 1993, 1994, and 1997-2003.
